His condition was serious that Father Daterty administered the last rites of the Church and O'Connell's mother and sister were sent for. They said he had ot been home for three months.

Although told he had practically n hope of recovery, O'Connett declared to not know who shot him or why. He first said the shooting took place at Thirty-O'Connell Halted Vehicle in fourth street and Seventh avenue, and later that it was at Tenth avenue and was done by a man in a dark doorway. Policemen on post near those corners say there were no shots fired near Plead the children, who are temporarily tir-d of playing with dumb toyshorses that never neigh, dollies that never talk. And Mother plays for them and the tired feeling goes away. Music has put something into them.

It is the great re-charging torce of lite. The Christmas Sale of Pianos

> & Player-Pianos (Unlike any other)

Presents opportunity in its most wonderful form to all who would like music in the home this Christmastime. All the year round we sell pianos and playerpianos at fixed prices which include our reasonable profits. NOW, forgetting profits-

(1) We are selling used pianos and player-pianos for the amount we allowed on them when we took them in exchange, plus only the cost of necessary repairs; and

(2) Have materially reduced prices on certain new pianos—uprights and grands—and player-pianos, which have been store handled.

To-morrow, Saturday, will be the day of all days for you who have planned some time to buy a piano or player-piano, to get the good kind you have been dreaming of, at a price you never expected, on terms that will make this Christmas the merriest you and your children have known in a long while.

So Come Tomorrow, for real opportunity remains only a little while anywhere; and those who would grasp this that is now here can only be sure of doing it TO-MORROW. Piano Salons, First Gallery, New Building

News of Specially-Priced Furs

If Christmas is cold and blizzardy the gift of furs will be doubly welcome. If the day is pleasant and sunshiny the furs will still be treasured because every woman wears fur this year, and she would like many more furs than she has already.

The Wanamaker Fur Salons, because of the mild weather, will present tomorrow an exceptional collection of-

$10 Dresses and $18.50 Coats Will Interest Young Women

It is popularly supposed that young women have no time to buy clothes around Christmas.

Clever ones know, however, that this is the time of opportunity.

For Young Women—Sizes 14, 16 and 18 Years Dresses, $10, were $17.50 to $20-Velveteen, corduroy, silk and serge, good colors, all sizes but not in each style. Street Coats, $18.50, regularly $30, made of fine all wool materials, fashionably cut and having fur collars of seal, silver coney, and tiger cat coney.

Evening Coats, $18.50, regularly $35, of imported broadcloth lined throughout with satin and having deep fur collars.

For Girls-Sizes 6 to 14 Years

Coats, $7.50, regularly $9.75. Coats, $10, regularly $13 and $15.

Warm and serviceable and good looking enough to put in a Christmas box. Other coats from $7.50 to $52.50—nearly all price lessened.

125 Men's Storm-Coats $10.75

$20 to $30 Grade

"If you want a coat for the country" said the chief of the New Store for Men to a man who wears a $50 overcoat -'get one of these."

They are coats for the open spaces in town or country, where the storms of winter have unfettered play.

Heavy rough cheviots in a variety of good colorings, some lined with serge, some with fancy wool cloth; weatherbuffers. We cannot mention the maker's

His product doesn't usually go into this modest-price section of the Men's Store at Wanamaker's.

But his name is on each coat. 125 men who act quickly tomorrow, Saturday, may have for themselves, or their sons, the best storm coat $10.75 ever bought.
